

MODULE 4: Playsheet

MY LIMITLESS CREATIVITY COMMITMENT

When's my magic hour?

Where and when do I shine?

What are my strengths?

How can I encourage more flow into my days?

When I've had a raving review or feedback before, what was I doing to encourage such a response?

Where am I filtering myself down whereby if I were truly ME it would have WAY more flavour?

If I were to own my true inner creativity, what would that mean for my life & business moving forward?

How can I acknowledge and cultivate my intuition even further?

If I could bring in more fun into my days, what would that look like?

How can I KNOW that an idea is worth expanding on and creating?

How am I a ROCK STAR in my field?

Do I finally and completely commit to tapping into my limitless creativity whenever I need or desire to?
